

Code of Conduct – Question & Answer Guide

Q1. What is the purpose of the Code of Conduct?

Answer: It defines ethical and professional behavior standards.

Q2. What behavior is expected?

Answer: Employees must act ethically and respectfully.

Q3. What ethical principles are emphasized?

Answer: Integrity, honesty, and accountability are emphasized.

Q4. How is harassment addressed?

Answer: Harassment is strictly prohibited.

Q5. What is considered discrimination?

Answer: Unfair treatment based on personal attributes.

Q6. What rules apply to workplace behavior?

Answer: Professional and respectful conduct is mandatory.

Q7. What is conflict of interest?

Answer: Situations where personal interests conflict with company interests.

Q8. Must conflicts be disclosed?

Answer: Yes, employees must disclose conflicts.

Q9. How should company assets be used?

Answer: Company assets must be used for official purposes only.

Q10. Is personal system use allowed?

Answer: Limited personal use may be allowed as per policy.

Q11. What software restrictions exist?

Answer: Unauthorized software installation is prohibited.

Q12. What if company data is misused?

Answer: Misuse may lead to disciplinary action.

Q13. What disciplinary actions are defined?

Answer: Warning, suspension, or termination.

Q14. What is the warning process?

Answer: Formal warning issued by management.

Q15. When is suspension applied?

Answer: For serious or repeated violations.

Q16. When can termination occur?

Answer: In case of severe misconduct.

Q17. Who enforces the policy?

Answer: Management and HR enforce the policy.

Q18. How are violations investigated?

Answer: Through formal inquiry procedures.

Q19. Can minor violations lead to termination?

Answer: Repeated minor violations may lead to termination.

Q20. Where is accountability mentioned?

Answer: Accountability is discussed throughout the policy.